

Rep. Leesa Hagen
District 156

Biography

State Representative Leesa Hagan represents the citizens of House District 156, which includes all of Toombs and Montgomery counties and portions of Appling and Jeff Davis counties. She was elected in July 2021.

At home, Rep. Hagan owns a small business consulting firm and is a member of the Greater Vidalia Chamber of Commerce. She is a former teacher with experience in public, private and home schools. She and her family are active members of the Grace Community Presbyterian Church.

Leesa was raised in Riverdale, Georgia but has lived in Lyons, the long-time home of her husband's family, for 12 years. She graduated from the University of Georgia in 1995 with a B.S. Ed. She and her husband have two sons.